

The course aims to understand the idea of curriculum execution and the factors that effect the execution of the curriculum, the relation between the developer of curriculum, and people who applied the curriculum, also the problem-solving and the role of applied research in curriculum execution, and teacher preparation, and the diversity of teaching strategy and the role of scholar central research and the executer .